CLOSING SPEECH

by

A. G. Litvinenko
Co-Director of the Symposium

Honorable Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen, Participants and Guests of the Symposium,

To-day we are considering the results of the Interregional Petrochemical Symposium on the Development of the Petrochemical Industries in Developing Countries. We are sure that the Symposium will play a significant part in the development of world petrochemical industry.

I should like to emphasize that it would have been impossible to organize the Symposium at such a high level without the help of all participants, consultants, observers and administrative staff of the Symposium and without the hospitality of the people from Baku city and petrochemical enterprises of the Azerbaijan SSR.

We shall long remember the meetings which have taken place here in the course of the Symposium.

All participants in the Symposium have done their best either in organizing the Symposium or in creating the kind of good atmosphere in which the work of UNIDO can be carried on. I thank you all very much.

On behalf of the Organizing Committee I wish all participants a safe journey home and success in the development of petrochemical industries in their respective countries.

Thank you.
