ORGANIZATION AND SUGGESTED PROCEDURES FOR THE AD HOC MELTINGS

Objective

- 1. The developing countries represented at the meeting were invited to come prepared to discuss the promotion of specific industrial projects.

 The afternoon on Tuesday and Wednesday has been allotted especially for this purpose, but meetings at other times may also be arranged to suit participants.
- 2. Further details of the arrangements for these meetings and a preliminary list of the documents available giving a list of specific projects are given below.
- 3. The meetings are experimental. UNIDO hopes that contacts will be initiated in these ad hoc meetings and later on pursued with a view to the implementation of a few specific industrial projects in developing countries.

Registration for ad hoc meetings

- 4. Participants from industrialized countries and developing countries are requested to complete the attached Registration Form to arrange appointments for the ad hoc meetings.
- 5. A request for an initial set of appointments should be completed by 10 a.m. on Tuesday and be handed to the Registration Bureau established by UNIDO in the Conference Hall. An initial schedule of appointments will be arranged by UNIDO staff and handed to interested parties as soon as possible.
- 6. Registration for further appointments can be made at the Registration Bureau at any other time; a half-hour period before each Plenary Session has been set aside for this purpose.

UNIDO staff responsible for ad hoc meetings

7. A team of UNIDO staff members will be responsible for organizing the ad hoc meetings between interested parties and will assist them when needed. This team will include Mr. Abdel-Meguid, Mr. Adusei-Poku, Mr. Almaula, Mrs. Jankowitsch, Mr. Line.

Location for ad hoc meetings

8. All meetings will take place in the small rooms adjacent to the Conference Hall.

Information available on specific industrial projects

- 9. As explained in UNIDC's invitation, participants from developing countries were invited to participate with information on a number of identified industrial projects to be discussed with interested parties. As a first result, the information available prior to the arrival of delegates are described in the following documents:
- ID.WG.22/15 List of Selected Identified Industrial Projects Kuwait
- ID.WG.22/16 List of Selected Identified Industrial Projects Malaysia
- ID.WG.22/17 List of Selected Identified Industrial Projects Pakistan
- ID. AG. 22/13 List of Selected Identified Industrial Projects Philippines
- ID.WG.22/19 List of Selected Identified Industrial Projects Thailand
- ID.WG.22/24 List of Selected Identified Industrial Projects Iran
- 10. Delegates from other developing countries are expected to bring similar information to the meeting.
- 11. For some projects, further information is available in the form of a brief non-confidential project report; these can be requested from the Registration Bureau. In certain cases, more detailed information or feasibility studies which have been prepared on the project are also available; these can be requested at the ad hoc meanings with the representative of the developing country concerned.

Procedures for the meeting

12. The meetings are informal and confidential to the parties involved.

A UNIDO staff member will be available to assist the parties according to the procedures suggested for the promotion of industrial investment at the project level outlined in the Issue Paper for Agenda Item (2).
