DRAFT AGREEMENT

between the United Nations and the Republic of Austria regarding the Headquarters of the United Nations
Industrial Development Organization

THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA

Considering that the United Nations General Assembly, by resolutions 2089 (XX) and 2152 (XXI) of 20 December 1965 and 17 November 1966, has established the United Nations Organization for Industrial Development as a subsidiary organ of the General Assembly of the United Nations, and, in response to an offer by the Republic of Austria, has, by resolution 2212 (XXI) of 17 December 1966, decided to establish the headquarters of that organization at Vienna;

Considering that the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 13 February 1946, to which the Republic of Austria is a party, is ipso facto applicable to the United Nations Industrial Development Organization;

Considering that it is desirable to conclude an agreement, complementary to the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, to regulate questions not envisaged in that Convention arising as a result of the establishment of the headquarters of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization at Vienna;

Have agreed as follows:

We regret that some of the pages in the microfiche copy of this report may not be up to the proper legibility standards, even though the best possible copy was used for preparing the master fiche.

THE HEADQUARTERS SEAT

Section 2

(a) The permanent headquarters of the UNIDO shall be in the headquarters seat, and shall not be removed therefrom unless the United Nations should so decide. Any transfer of the headquarters temporarily to another place shall not constitute a removal of the permanent headquarters unless there is an express decision by the United Nations to that effect.

(b) Any building in or outside of Vienna which may be used with the concurrence of the Government for meetings convened by the UNIDO shall be temporarily included in the headquarters seat.

(c) The appropriate Austrian authorities shall take whatever action may be necessary to ensure that the UNIDO shall not be dispossessed of all or any part of the headquarters seat without the express consent of the United Nations.

Section 3

The Government grants to the UNIDO, and the UNIDO accepts from the Government, the permanent use and occupation of a headquarters seat as may from time to time be defined in supplemental agreements to be concluded between the UNIDO and the Government.

Section 4

(a) The United Nations shall for official purposes have the authority to install and operate a radio sending and receiving station or stations to connect at appropriate points and exchange traffic with the United Nations radio network. The United Nations as a telecommunications administration will operate its telecommunications services in accordance with the International Telecommunication Convention and the Regulations annexed thereto. The frequencies used by these stations will be communicated by the United Nations to the Government and to the International Frequency Registration Board.

(b) The Government shall, upon request, grant to the UNIDO for official purposes appropriate radio and other telecommunications facilities in conformity with technical arrangements to be made with the International Telecommunication Union.

Section 5

The UNIDO may establish and operate research, documentation and other technical facilities of any type. These facilities shall be subject to appropriate safeguards which, in the case of facilities which might create hazards to health or safety or interfere with property, shall be agreed with the appropriate Austrian authorities.

Section 6

The facilities provided for in sections 4 and 5 may, to the extent necessary for efficient operation, be established and operated outside the headquarters area. The appropriate Austrian authorities shall, at the request of the UNIDO, make arrangements, on such terms and in such manner as may be agreed upon by supplemental agreement, for the acquisition or use by the UNIDO of appropriate premises in the headquarters seat.

No law of the Republic of Austria which is inconsistent with a regulation of the UNIDO authorized by this section shall, to the extent of such inconsistency, be applicable within the headquarters seat. Any dispute between the UNIDO and the Republic of Austria as to whether a regulation of the UNIDO is authorized by this section or as to whether a law of the Republic of Austria is inconsistent with any regulation of the UNIDO authorized by this section, shall be promptly settled by the procedure set out in section 35. Pending such settlement, the regulation of the UNIDO shall apply and the law of the Republic of Austria shall be inapplicable in the headquarters seat to the extent that the UNIDO claims it to be inconsistent with the regulation of the UNIDO.

Section 10

(a) The appropriate Austrian authorities shall exercise due diligence to ensure that the tranquillity of the headquarters seat is not disturbed by any person or group of persons attempting unauthorized entry into or creating disturbances in the immediate vicinity of the headquarters seat, and shall provide on the boundaries of the headquarters seat such police protection as may be required for these purposes.

(b) If so requested by the Executive Director, the appropriate Austrian authorities shall provide a sufficient number of police for the preservation of law and order in the headquarters seat.

(c) The Executive Director shall, upon request, make suitable arrangements to enable duly authorized representatives of the appropriate public services bodies to inspect, repair, maintain, reconstruct and relocate utilities, conduits, mains and sewers within the headquarters seat under conditions which shall not unreasonably disturb the carrying out of the functions of the UNIDO.

It is, however, understood that the UNIDO will not claim reimbursement with respect to minor purchases. With respect to such taxes, the UNIDO shall at all times enjoy at least the same exemptions and facilities as are granted to Austrian governmental administrations or to chiefs of diplomatic missions accredited to the Republic of Austria, whichever are the more favourable. It is further understood that the UNIDO will not claim exemption from taxes which are in fact no more than charges for public utility services.

(c) All transactions to which the UNIDO is a party, and all documents recording such transactions, shall be exempt from all taxes, recording fees, and documentary taxes.

(d) Articles imported or exported by the UNIDO for official purposes shall be exempt from customs duties and other levies, and from prohibitions and restrictions on imports and exports.

Section 36

The Republic of Austria shall not incur by reason of the location of the headquarters seat of the UNIDO within its territory any international responsibility for acts or omissions of the UNIDO or of its officials acting or abstaining from acting within the scope of their functions, other than the international responsibility which the Republic of Austria would incur as a Member of the United Nations.

Section 37

Without prejudice to the privileges and immunities accorded by this Agreement, it is the duty of all persons enjoying such privileges and immunities to respect the laws and regulations of the Republic of Austria. They also have a duty not to interfere in the internal affairs of this State.

Section 38

(a) The Executive Director shall take every precaution to ensure that no abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement shall occur, and for this purpose shall establish such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary and expedient, for officials of the UNIDO and for such other persons as may be appropriate.

(b) Should the Government consider that an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement has occurred, the Executive Director shall, upon request, consult with the appropriate Austrian authorities to determine whether any such abuse has occurred. This Agreement shall be construed in the light of its primary purpose of enabling the UNIDO at its headquarters in the Republic of Austria fully and efficiently to discharge its responsibilities and fulfil its purposes.

Section 43

Consultations with respect to modification of this Agreement shall be entered into at the request of the United Nations or the Government. Any such modification shall be by mutual consent.
