REGULATIONS OF THE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT BOARD

GENERAL QUESTIONS

ARTICLE 1. SCOPE AND PURPOSE

1.1 The provisions of General Assembly resolution 6156 (XVI) of 17 November 1961 recognized that the efficiency and effectiveness of the United Nations Industrial Development Board could be better ensured if it also had its own independent financing resources.

emphasizing the need to ensure that the new organization will start work on the basis of an effective and efficient beginning, especially in its operational activities.

emphasizing the important role of the United Nations regular programme of technical assistance as a general framework in broadening the direct assistance provided to the developing countries in the field of industrial development.

emphasizing that it is necessary to revise the provisions governing the United Nations regular programme of technical assistance with a view to:

- (a) increasing the level of the allocations to industrial development projects within the total appropriations under part V of the regular budget;
- (b) providing for separate programming and approval of these allocations;

and 1.2 requesting the Secretary-General of the United Nations to convene an annual planning conference in accordance with paragraph 25 (g) of General Assembly resolution 6156 (XVI) the first such conference to be convened during the twenty-third session of the General Assembly;

We regret that some of the pages in the microfiche copy of this report may not be up to the proper legibility standards, even though the best possible copy was used for preparing the master fiche.

2. Recommends the General Assembly at its twenty-second session to take appropriate action to:

(a) Establish a separate section in part V of the budget of the United Nations to provide for the programme of technical assistance in industrial development at an appropriate level commensurate with the expanding requirements of the developing countries;

(b) Amend General Assembly resolution 2029 (XX) of 22 November 1965 so as to enable the Industrial Development Board to consider and approve the projects and programmes in the field of industrial development undertaken through the utilization of the resources thus appropriated, and to provide general policy guidance and direction with reference to the utilization of these resources.

36th plenary meeting,
4 May 1967.
