Industrial Development Board

Third Session

Vienna, 24 April - 15 May 1969

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT BOARD

Promotion of export-oriented industries

The Industrial Development Board,

Recognizing the importance of promoting export-oriented industries in the developing countries,

Taking into account the principles of international trade relations adopted by the First United Nations Conference on Trade and Development,

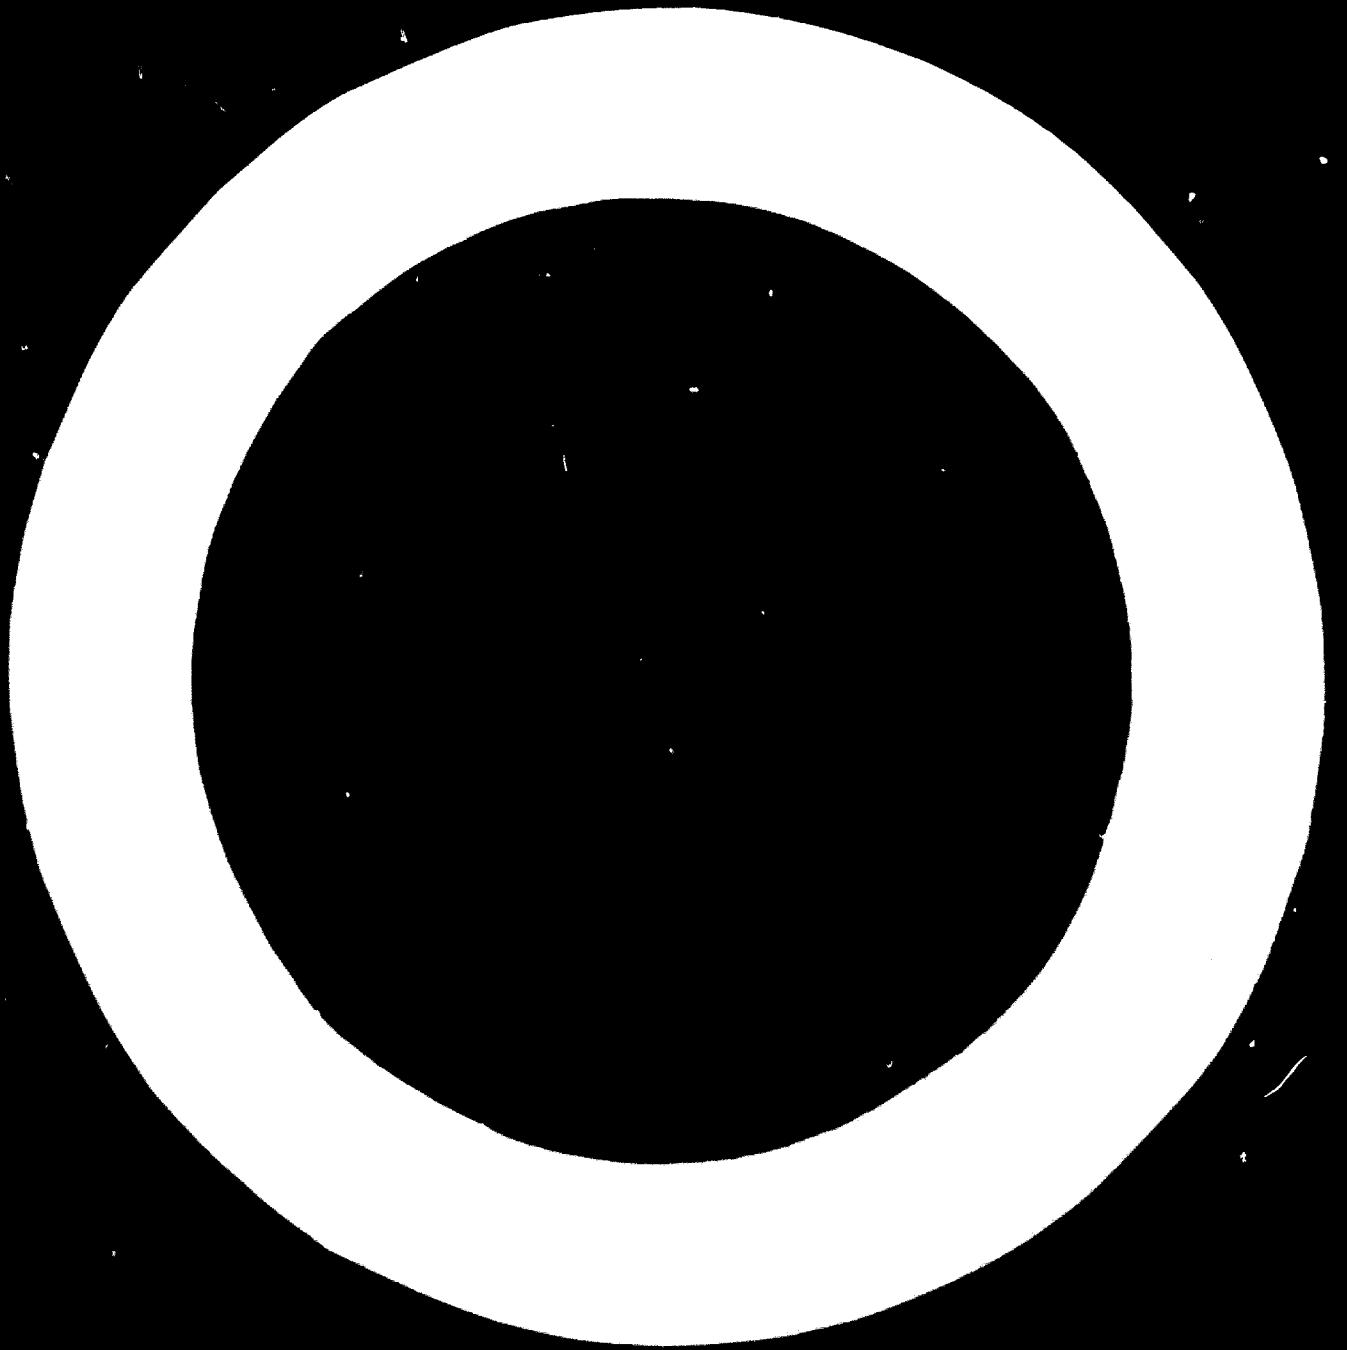

Taking into account the activities in this field of the regional economic commissions of the United Nations and of other United Nations organizations,

Considering the need to avoid dispersal of efforts among the various organizations,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 2152 (XXI), paragraph 29 of 17 November 1966,

1. Takes note of Economic and Social Council resolution 1362 (XLV) of 2 August 1968 concerning the United Nations export promotion efforts;
2. Approves the established co-operation with other organizations and agencies participating in the United Nations Export Promotion Programme, especially with UNCTAD together with the joint UNCTAD/GATT International Trade Centre;
3. Requests the Executive Director to continue this co-operation, including practical measures of co-ordination in the various stages of execution of joint projects, and to co-operate with regional and international institutions within the United Nations system;

We regret that some of the pages in the microfiche copy of this report may not be up to the proper legibility standards, even though the best possible copy was used for preparing the master fiche.

4. Further requests the Executive Director, with regards to the contribution of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization in promoting export-oriented industries within the developing countries, to give special emphasis to standardization, quality control, product improvement, design, packaging and similar measures, as well as sub-contracting and licensing arrangements aimed at improving the market acceptance and competitiveness of industrial products from the developing countries
